

Lillian Marie Wootton

March 29, 1923 - July 12, 2012

Lillian Marie Wootton of Church Hill, MD, died on Thursday, July 12, 2012, at Annapolitan Assisted Living in Annapolis, MD. She was 89.

Mrs. Wootton was born on March 29, 1923, in Baltimore, MD. She was the daughter of the late Edwin and Francesca Baier Harrison and the wife of the late, Harry D. Wootton, Sr. Mrs. Wootton lived most of her life in Baltimore until she moved to the Eastern Shore in the early 1980's. She was a charter member of the New Yarmouth Questers of Chestertown. Mrs. Wootton had a love of history, home restoration, antiques, animals, and fashion. She was a world traveler.

She is survived by two daughters, Susan O'Hara of Barclay, MD, and Linda King of Finksburg, MD; one son, David Wootton of Brooklandville, MD; seven grandchildren; and eight great-grandchildren. She was predeceased by her sons, Frederick Wootton and Harry D. Wootton, Jr.; her brother, Edwin Harrison; and three sisters, Mildred Johnson, Irma Thomas and Dorothy Crooks.

Services will be held privately at a later date.

Cemetery Details

Private

Tribute Wall

“ Lillian Marie Wootton

October 26, 2023 at 06:42 PM

“ Lillian Marie Wootton

January 28, 2023 at 12:44 PM

“ Lillian Marie Wootton

January 28, 2023 at 08:03 AM

“ As her daughter in law married to her son, Frederick B. Wootton, for 6 days short of 30 years, I must comment here that I had the utmost respect for Lillian, the sweetest, most caring mother in law anyone could ever hope for. At least I am comforted by the fact that now she can see her beloved son, my husband, Fred, once more! Go in peace, Lillian, you were so loved!

Michelle N. Wootton

Michelle N. Wootton - July 14, 2012 at 05:30 PM