We enjoyed many fun times with Mark. I always remember when some of us gathered to make pizza in the outdoor brick oven. That evening we shared laughs, stories, wonderful food, and great fellowship. He was in our crowd of active singles at Church of the Saviour. We had Bible studies, singing, and dining at restaurants. At various times Mark also helped several of us move. He always had a smile and a kind word to share; we were sorry when he moved away. Knowing Mark made our lives richer, and he is a friend we will miss.

So sorry to hear of Mark's passing. He was a good friend. Helped us with some work at our house a few (about 20) years ago. Will miss his warm, friendly smile.

Hello!
I was a friend of Mark's from the singles group at Church of the Saviour. Mark was always smiling and helped me at my home in Paoli several times. One was on the hottest day of the year! Mark helped me edge my sidewalks!! We drank a lot of water and took many breaks but Mark never complained. So comforting to know he is with the Lord now!
