Mildred D. Ludwig

January 10, 1922 - February 21, 2009

Mildred Davis Ludwig of Earleville, MD died at her home Saturday, February 21, 2009. She was 87,

Mildred D. Ludwig was born Jan. 10, 1922 in Winchendon, Mass., the daughter of the late James Corbett Davis and Steelman “Sallie”Taylor. Mrs. Ludwig attended schools in Pennsylvania and Delaware. She graduated from Newark High School in 1939 and graduated from the University of Delaware with a bachelors of Arts and Science degree in 1943. In 1964 she also received a master’s degree in secondary education. In 1946 she married Leonard L. Ludwig. The couple lived in Newark, DE and then moved to Earleville, MD. Mrs. Ludwig worked as a teacher and scientist. She received a technical award of science during WWII for her work on the Manhattan Project. Mrs. Ludwig helped start the Save the Bay Foundation and help start the grass roots movement as well and became known as the “Swamp Lady” to friends and neighbors. She enjoyed teaching, working with the Girl Scouts and helping with many environmental causes.

Mrs. Ludwig is survived by one daughter Sharon L. Wiedmann and husband Rich of Cedar Grove, NC, one son Eric W. Ludwig and wife Robin of Earlville, MD, one grandson, Mark Wiedmann and wife Corrie and two great grandchildren, Trey and Taylor Wiedmann of Wake Forest, NC

Services will be private.

Arrangements by Fellows, Helfenbein and Newnam Funeral Home 226 Main St. Cecilton, MD

Tribute Wall

Mildred D. Ludwig

October 26, 2023 at 06:42 PM

Mildred D. Ludwig

January 28, 2023 at 12:44 PM

Mildred D. Ludwig

January 28, 2023 at 08:03 AM

Millie was one of a kind. She was a good friend. I will miss her laughter and her orneriness. She helped me to see it was alright to walk your own path, even if it was different than others. My prayers are with her family and other friends.
Suzi##imported-begin##Sue Thompson##imported-end##

February 24, 2009 at 10:24 AM