FUNERAL HOME, P.A.

Helping Families Heal

THE MOST IMPORTANT QUESTIONS

to ask before choosing a funeral home

“What is the best way to honor my loved one?”

“Who has the most experience to guide me and my family?”

“Will the assistance my loved one deserves be affordable?”

When families plan for a funeral or cremation, they do so with the expectation that unique and personalized services will be planned and carried out perfectly.

There is trust in the ability of the funeral home to honor a life lived with the dignity he or she deserves. These services need to be performed in a way that keeps the expense reasonable. Put simply, families are looking for the best.

When you place your trust in Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam, you can rest assured that your unique vision will be carried out to honor your loved one with clear, up front pricing. Our compassionate staff is committed to assist you before, during and long after your loved one is honored. Put simply, our service to you does not end when the services are over.

The Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam families have been a part of their communities for decades, and we are ready to offer your family the same ‘above and beyond’ assistance you have come to expect. Our dedicated colleagues have joined us because they too believe in our mission to Create Memorable Experiences.

There's more than one way to be remembered

Thumbies

We have the technology to take your loved one's thumb print and see that it is engraved into gold and silver to create stunning jewelry. Give your family Thumbies at the memorial service or months later on an anniversary or holiday. We preserve the print for you so you can purchase a Thumbie at any time. Thumbies are a beautiful way to keep the memory of your loved one alive and close to your heart.

Why should I have a licensed director at my memorial ceremony?

Assistance During the Ceremony

On the day of the ceremony, you should be focused on family, friends and your loved one, not hosting an event. Our licensed team displays memorial items and photos to have present at the ceremony. If a video tribute is planned, we meet with the video technician prior to test the video and audio equipment. All enhancements for the ceremony will be confirmed and all participants compensation will be distributed.

We receive and photograph the flowers as they arrive so that you have a record of who sent each piece. Our team ensures that seating is reserved for family, special guests and all displays are properly presented.

We manage parking and reserve parking areas for the family and provide staff to assist when space is limited. If it is raining, we are there to escort guests from their cars into the building with large umbrellas. Valet parking may also be made available by our staff for the convenience of guests attending the ceremony.

Our staff will welcome guests and encourage those attending to sign the guest book. We will ensure guests are invited to join family in fellowship following the ceremony and distribute directions if necessary.

Most importantly, we are prepared for any emergency. Should there be a change in any aspect of the ceremony we will provide a seamless transition for the comfort of attendees.

When it comes to honoring a loved one, we ensure that everything is overseen with perfection.

We think of everything so you don't have to.

This delightful gem is our Grief Therapy dog, Willow. She is a Whoodle, which is a mix between a soft coated Wheaten Terrier and a Poodle. Willow will be visiting our locations periodically and serving as a grief therapy dog at our Chestertown region.

Brooke is busy learning how to be a grief therapy dog and she spends most of her time at our Easton funeral home location. She's also a Whoodle and is best described as full of friendly curiosity. She's excited to meet new people, so feel free to stop by the funeral home and visit her.

GOING GREEN

All-Natural Green Burial offered exclusively through Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam.

Natural Green Burial offers a unique all-natural method to traditional burial. A biodegradable casket or shroud will be used to place the deceased in a hand-dug grave space. A concrete outer enclosure is not used in this unique method of disposition. After the interment, a river rock is placed to mark the space.

No chemical treatment is used in this process. Private visitations may still be performed without embalming.

COMMITMENT TO CREMATION CARE

Your Loved One Never Leaves Our Care

Many funeral homes outsource the most important part of cremation, the cremation process itself. We strongly believe in never doing so. We transport and care for the deceased and operate our own crematory to ensure the level of care meets our community's standards.

Positive Identification

We have a unique process for identifying those entrusted to our care. First, we immediately place a personal identification bracelet on the deceased that is recorded into our proprietary system. Then, fingerprints may be secured, and all personal property inventoried. Next, a unique identification number is given to the deceased. This number is used throughout the cremation process, and a stainless-steel tag with this number accompanies the decedent during the cremation. Finally, we have multiple assurance points to verify all wishes and directives are followed before, during and after the cremation.

Private Farewell

The opportunity is always offered to have a final viewing in a comfortable atmosphere at our convenient locations. Everyone in our care is bathed with dignity and optional dressing in clothing of choice is available.

Certified Crematory Operator

Our crematory operators have been through an extensive training and certification process. A majority of our operators are also licensed funeral directors.

Returning Cremated Remains

When cremation is complete, all cremated remains are secured in an inner liner and clearly labeled. Once sealed, they are placed in the urn selected.

OUR PROMISE TO YOU

Should we fail to meet your expectations or to provide value for the fees you are charged, please let us know immediately. We will work very hard to correct any deficiency. If we are unable to resolve the matter to your complete satisfaction, we will make an appropriate adjustment in our fees.
