“ Dawn and Geoff were such good friends and neighbors of ours while living in Gaithersburg, Md:during the 70's. Her son, Greg, was 20 months old, and our daughter, Kristen18 months, Kristen's first “buddy”. Then Heather came along, Kristen's first girlfriend. The three of them were inseparable. Dawn and I shared a fantastic “early” motherhood with those kids for 8 years. Our husbands were the best of friends, and life was good. Dawn's mother visited often and was such a sweet and caring lady—I loved her! I often recall those great times we shared. We even vacationed together, camping in Outer Banks, NC; Deep Creek Lake, MD., etc. Husband, Joe and Geoff, would go on their daily run; and, Dawn and I would be watching the kids play in the neighborhood street with surrounding kiddies before dinner time. Dawn and I were stay at home Moms at the time — fond memories I cherish. Rest In Peace, my dear friend. You and Greg will always be in my heart, and memories.
