

Andrew Erwin Tyree

June 11, 1973 - May 23, 2021

Andrew Erwin Tyree of Chestertown, Maryland died on May 23, 2021 at the University of Maryland Medical Center in Baltimore. He was only 47 years old.

Andy, as he liked to be called, was born in Cheverly, MD on June 11, 1973 as the son of the late Kenneth Ray Tyree and Carol Sue Tyree of Chestertown, MD.

As a graduate of DeMatha Catholic High School Class of 1991, he went on to continue his studies at both Prince George's County Community College and later Chesapeake Community College, where he studied Culinary Arts and found his true calling.

After Andy worked as a land surveyor with Landtec and managed "Pete's Liquors" in Beltsville, MD, he was truly excited to begin his new career as a chef. Whether he was cooking at home or frying up some delicious Royal Farms chicken, the kitchen was his happy place.

In addition to his love of cooking, he was also a master gardener, and truly enjoyed both reading and music.

In addition to his mother, he is survived by his sister, Jennifer Tyree (Richard) of Morristown, TN; nieces, Amanda Sands (Brian) of Clayton, DE and their children Kenneth, Grace, Brian Jr., and Natalie, as well as his niece Rachel Tyree; nephew, Garrett Swartswelder; along with his beloved "daughter" Aviendha Goodrich, whom he enjoyed raising as his own; and last but not least, Queen Mona, his beagle and best friend. One brother, Ben Tyree, predeceased him.

Services will be held privately.

Comments

“ This is sad, I work with Andy at Pete's, we used to talk a lot about philosophy when we work together, and he introduced a lot of books to me that would change my life. May your rest in peace, brother.

Michael Gomez - June 06 at 07:41 PM