“ Please accept my heartfelt condolences. No doubt Dave's death is a great loss to his family and all who knew and loved him. He hired me in the late 70s and I worked with him at Dean Witter Reynolds into the early 80s. He was professional, had an engaging sense of humor and thoughtful, too. I remember fondly each St. Patrick's Day he'd bring in green carnations for every woman in the office. Aside from business he always spoke proudly of his children. "As long as we live, they too will live; for they are now a part of us as we remember them."

“ Many many beloved memories of wonderful family times growing up! My dad Calvin Cox LOVED David and was so close to him - and I can still hear all their laughter even now!

“ My wife and I became David's clients in 1975 (Merrill Lynch, anyone?), a couple of years after we were married, and we remained his steadfast clients wherever he relocated. Why wouldn't we? David was a valued financial advisor, and more than that, he was a friend, always cordial in his demeanor, always ready to share a funny story. It was always a pleasure to meet with him or to speak with him on the phone , and we miss him already.

We send our condolences to Kevin and the rest of the family.

“ I was widowed at age 38 with two children. Dave was my financial adviser for about 25 years, during which he would contact me when there was a financial move he wanted to discuss with me. I trusted that he had my best interest in mind as he recommended ways to both grow and yet protect my assets for the long haul. He was kind and never rushed and extremely knowledgeable. I missed being able to contact him for advice when he retired, and am saddened to hear of his passing. I send my condolences to his family.

“ Sorry to read of the death of Dave Connolly. He was Assistant Manager to Bob Kelley in Washington office of Paine Webber when I joined as trainee in 1971. He combined maturity and sound judgment with compassion and a great sense of humor during the very difficult stock market period of 1973-1974. Obviously, he maintained the complete trust of his clients and provided leadership to the other brokers. His leadership was recognized by competitor Dean Witter who hired him to establish a new branch office in Bethesda in 1976. The office experienced a great deal of success as a large number of the top brokers in the Paine Webber office followed him to Dean Witter.

Dave was a well respected colleague with a sparkling personality whom will be fondly remembered and sadly missed.
