

Earl Gibson Fischbach III

April 1, 1966 - November 2, 2020

Earl Gibson Fischbach III, 54, of Chester, MD, passed away on all souls day, November 2nd, 2020, of lung cancer with his family by his side.

In April, only one day after his father's birthday, he was born in Baltimore to Earl Gibson Fischbach, Jr. and Mary Elissa Fischbach (nee Tosches), both of Chester, Maryland.

Earl attended Anne Arundel Community College and graduated from Le Ecole Culinary Institute. He began his career on Gibson Island and worked as an Executive Sous Chef from the west coast to restaurants on Kent Island and St. Michaels. He lost the love of his life, Jenny and looked forward to seeing her again on the other side.

Earl will be remembered for his sense of humor, smile, and infectious laugh. He was kind, generous, loving, and held his family and friends close to his heart. Earl was a devoted Ravens fan and loved animals, but none more than his devoted dog Mitzy. From the time he brought her home in the palm of his hand to the last day, she was his special girl.

Earl is preceded in death by his wife Jenny, his father, and his niece Danielle. He is survived by his mother, his sister Elissa Moore, his nephews Michael and Shane Moore (Nicole), grandnephew Liam Moore, and grandniece Mila Moore. He is also survived by numerous aunts, uncles, cousins and special friends.

The service for Earl will be held at 11 AM on November 18, 2020 at St. Christopher's Catholic Church at 1861 Harbor Dr, Chester, MD 21619.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions can be made in Earl's name to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital.

“ Remembering the times when as a child, Earl would go grocery shopping with dad. Earl would sit in the cart and dad would pile groceries on top of him. They'd get in the checkout line and Earl would pop out from under the groceries and scare the heck out of the cashier and others in the line. Dad and Earl would laugh and couldn't wait to get home to tell mom, laughing the whole time.
