“ Dad,
You taught me the meaning of life, not just through your many quips and quotes, but through your loving ways, your joy and laughter, fierce loyalty, unsurpassed devotion, and acceptance of all. Your friendship has been an honor and blessing. I know you are at peace and you will never be forgotten.
With love,
Your "Third Daughter"

“ Oh the joy of growing up on East Mayer Drive next to the Brown family. The location was idyllic with large lots, shady trees and lawns that made the Dads proud. The family of Ed and Jean stretched beyond our tightly grouped set of four, with Eddie and Linda older, Danny younger, and Carol and Tim lined right up with our pack. We could look up, over, and around, and there was always a Brown, including their gentle and beloved dog Penny.
We grew up during the Brady Bunch years. East Mayer Drive was filled with families, and neighbors were true friends. Summer fun centered around the Brown's pool, bike trips to Nicky's Pizza and visits from the ice cream truck. The Brady kids would have loved it as much as we did.
The Cranney kids remember Ed Brown's friendly presence, snappy dress and kind words. He was a wonderful neighbor and a family man of faith. All those years of raising households of children side by side developed into a lifelong friendship for our parents, Sue and Jack, and Ed and Jean. Several of us were thrilled to reconnect with the Browns and Verboys the past two years in Florida over lunches. It was moving to see both Ed and Joe Verboys comfort our Dad as he sat with his head bowed and his shoulders shaking as Dad tried to keep it together in light of our Mom's recent passing. True friends. True faith.
We honor Mr. Brown's life well lived. We are lucky to have been a part of those young family years – and blessed to witness the bonds of these lifelong friendships. On behalf of our Dad, we send our thoughts and condolences to Jean, Ed, Linda, Carol, Tim, Dan, and all their families. We share these memories out of great love and respect.
With love, Laurie, Joanne, Bill and Sally Cranney

“ T-H-A-N-K-S, Uncle Ed for the fond memories especially as a youth at family gatherings. I am indeed BLESSED to have known you!! Whether you know it or not (but you probably already do!) this is only a beginning for you, the beginning of a blissful, eternal life, rather than an end! Music has ALWAYS been a part of me (my life).; so let me end this tribute, as only I know best, as follows:
