

Evelyn S. Rowland

July 17, 1924 - August 30, 2020

Evelyn S. Rowland passed away after a long and eventful life. Born in Baltimore, Evelyn attended the Maryland Institute's College of Art before marrying Naval Officer and pilot Jo Humes in 1945 with whom she had 3 children. The Humes family lived on both coasts and enjoyed Navy life immensely. Widowed 11 years later, Evelyn returned to Baltimore to be near her family and resume her studies at the Shuler School of Fine Arts. After a second marriage, she divorced and moved to the Eastern Shore in the early 80s, where she reconnected with Preston Spring, an old beau from her youth. They enjoyed a long and happy retirement together on the Miles River until Preston passed away in 2012. Evelyn spent her remaining years at Heartfields, visited by her daughters Lucia and Robin Humes, grandsons Michael, Matthew, and Joseph Humes Borkowski, great-grandsons, Kenneth and Benedict, and step-daughter, Ellen Cayer. Evelyn had a great fashion sense and loved to shop. She was a favorite in many local stores. Evelyn also loved to entertain and was both a wonderful hostess and the life of the party. Her family and many friends will miss her dearly, especially her devoted friend and nurse, Karen Weisman. Evelyn's memorial is postponed indefinitely due to Covid-19.

“ A Lovely Lady has gone on to her next adventure. She certainly lived life to it's fullest. Such a dear colorful and creative person. Thinking of Lucia and family and how dedicated Lucia was to her mother. Peace.

“ For years my sister and I wondered what ever happened to Evie Rowland? A dear friend of my mother’s for many, many years, going back to the old Baltimore days and then continuing on the Shore, they had some sort of falling out and eventually lost touch. Evie was so dear to my children growing up, always bringing wonderful trinkets and doting on them when she visited. I remember many a cocktail party with Evie and Preston in attendance. I can hear her saying to my mother, “Annie, Annie, Annie!” To find out she was only a few miles away at Heartfields, I would loved to have visited if I’d known she was there. My sincere condolences to Lucia and Robin who she spoke of often. -Harriet Mills
