“ I had the pleasure of joining John and his dad (my uncle jimmy)on a fishing trip a few years back and I have said since then it was one of the best days of my life. John was very enjoyable and so kind to me. May he rest in peace.

“ At work, he would treat just he and I (sister-Laura) to grilled soft crab sandwiches. That was a delicious and thoughtful treat! He'd use a little table top grill, it was fun. Fond memories.

“ So many memories. I wish they didn't fade as we age!! My big Brother. He was so cool to me. So good to me. And we had the best conversations. I always walked away thinking.

To have those days back.....I'll see you someday again, my handsome brother. Devin and Tabitha, he loved you so much. Was proud of you both.
