“ i am Kaleb and ethan's sister. i am just going to say the same thing i said on Ethan's so just go to his. but i will add that it is even more surreal to have 2 brothers born sleeping than just one. oh and i also want to add, if u look at this and u have a brother or even sister that drives u crazy then i am going to tell u what i tell everyone else. don't take them for granted u are sooooo lucky to have him or her. i do have a brother that survived and trust me he drives me crazy but when i am getting ready to say i hate him or something just as bad, i immediatly think about Kaleb and ethan and then i realize that i am lucky to have him. he barel survived. our doctor ended up making it where my mom is induced early just since Ethan was full term and wrapped the cord around his neck three time and Kaleb was not quite full term but layed on is cord too long. Kauden was born with the cord around his neck 2 times. who knows a little more time and he may have twisted around so that the cord was normal but he also could have kept it that way or made it go around again. he could have died just like Ethan did. fir kaleb we got a little blue dog that had a button tipe thing that when u squeezed its belly it saud a little rhyme and that rhyme was perfect. sadly though it does not work aymore so i just have the dog. i want to thank these people at the funeral home that could not have possibly made the pain go away but they made this process a little easier.
