

Lavender Osa-Imuentinyan Edionseri

October 13, 2020 - June 25, 2021

Baby Lavender Osa-Imuentinyan Edionseri sadly passed away on Friday, June 25th, 2021. She was 8 months old.

Lavender was born in Annapolis, Maryland at the Anne Arundel Medical Center on October 13th, 2020, to John and Berther Edionseri.

Lavender Osa-Imuentinyan Edionseri was absolutely lovely, as her middle name implies (Jehovah is my strength!). From the moment Lavender was growing in her mother's womb and throughout her infant life, she was taught by her parents, about Jehovah God and all of his magnificent glory, power and love. Even while still in the hospital before coming home, Lavender had the wonderful privilege of attending some virtual congregation meetings with her mother, Berther. Lavender at an early age was truly a member of the Queenstown Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses. Her parents prayed with her and told her to always rely on Jehovah. She was resilient even with the challenges she endured due to her early birth she was wonderfully made by Jehovah. She was beautiful, happy and adorable. In her eyes, you could see life and happiness. She had such a great facial expression. Lavender was so unique, in that anyone who had contact with her will never forget her beauty and resilience. She was loved by all the doctors and nurses. As a preemie, she was so feisty. She stole all our hearts. Lavender will continue to be remembered for the joy and happiness she brought into our lives.

Lavender leaves to mourn her loss and cherish very special memories, parents - John & Berther Edionseri; three siblings - Lauren, Lemuel and Leslie Edionseri; grandparents - Ifeanyi & Roselyn Annih; and a host of uncles, aunts, and cousins. She is also loved by a host of close special family friends.

At the family's request a virtual only service will be held on Thursday, July 1st, 2021 at 11:30 am

Comments

“ A webcast video has been added.

Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home - July 01 at 11:23 AM

“ God bless the family, this was a beautiful home going serve, are prayers go out to you, she was so beautiful may she rest in peace. Mr Hubert

Hubert Phillips Sr - July 01 at 12:03 PM

“ Mary Lou Christian lit a candle in memory of Lavender Osa-Imuentinyan Edionseri

Mary Lou Christian - July 08 at 12:23 PM

“ 1 file added to the tribute wall

Tyra Washington - July 02 at 09:04 PM

“ Dear John and Berther,
You don't know me, but I have had the opportunity to meet your 3 older children at the elementary school. I am familiar with the deep pain you're feeling as I lost my 6-year-old son in 2013. I am so very sorry for the Earthly loss of your beautiful, precious Lavender. I will keep your family very close in my prayers. If you ever need a friend who understands, please reach out to me.

Kari Oulahyane - July 02 at 04:44 PM

“ Hi.Thank you so much for your kind words.sorry I don't remember you but will love to meet you .

Berther Edionseri - July 11 at 04:27 PM

“ Lavender my little angel It's so sad that I never get to hold you in my arms before the cold hands of death took you away it is indeed very painful we will all miss you. But the rest assured that you will always be in our heart and mind each passing day. I encourage all the family members especially the mother because it is not easy to lose a child it is a painful experience that can never leave the heart but please I encourage us all to keep our faith in this time as we grief, we should have the courage, strength and be brave and continue to think of the resurrection hope. We will forever miss you Lavender.
In God's new world we will see again were I will be able to hold you in my arms.

From the Rācean Family

Rācean Family - July 01 at 11:34 AM

“ To the Edionseri family, you are in our thoughts and prayers at this difficult time. We love you, we look forward to meet Lavender in the future when all is new. We are sincerely sorry for your loss. The Adedapo.

Amos and Funmi Adedapo - July 01 at 11:06 AM

“ To John & Berther, we want to express our deepest condolences to you and the family during this difficult time.

Lavender quickly made her mark, right from the start. Immediately our hearts become so full of love, for this precious gift given from above. So bright eyed, beautiful and full of life. She continuously remained strong as time passed along. Though, we are now pained and deeply saddened over Lavender's passing, we are convinced that death nor anything will separate us from God's Love.

So to John, Berther and the entire Edionseri Family, you are in our continued thoughts and prayers. Praying that Jehovah will lovingly continue to give you the needed strength and comfort to endure. Even though the tears will come and go and still come again, so very thankful to have shared in some precious moments with our sweet Lavender, that will help slowly end these tears and leave us with cherished memories that will last for years. Until the time comes when God fulfills his promise to make all things new, to “wipe all tears from our eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away” (Rev. 21:4); until this amazing promise becomes a reality we will continue to do our best, with Jehovah's help, to comfort you, love you and support you.

Love Always & Forever
Tyra, Shawn & Olivia Washington

Tyra Washington - June 30 at 09:35 AM

“ John, Berther, Lauren, Lemuel & Leslie,

Our prayers and condolences are with your family. We talked about looking forward to the things unseen. The things seen are temporary. The things unseen are everlasting.

The challenges we all face today will not even be a memory in the near future when we wake up in the new world to come. Isaiah 25:8 the prophetic promise is made that God “will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces.”

Sorrowfully submitted, The Stripling’s

Grace & Hosea - June 29 at 03:04 PM

“ To the Edionseri Family,

It is with a heavy heart that I write this message. You have lost a precious little one and the hurt and pain must be very deep. May Jehovah, the God of tender mercies comfort you during this difficult time.(2Cor. 1:3,4.) And know it won't be long before the promises of Jehovah come to fruition at John 5:28,29 and Rev. 21:4. Also, please know that you are in my thoughts and prayers.

With Deepest Sympathy,

Stephanie Ayers

stephanie ayers - July 01 at 07:58 AM