

Mrs. Margaret "Becky" Cook

May 9, 1928 - March 22, 2019

Margaret "Becky" Hall Cook, who was born on May 9, 1928, passed away peacefully on March 22, 2019. She was 90 years old.

Margaret "Becky" grew up in Church Hill, Maryland. She was married to Everett Lee Cook and together they traveled to Europe and took other exciting adventures before settling in Bel Air, Maryland. Becky was an avid reader and credited this love to her life as an educator. Both Becky and Everett taught in the public-school system. Both attained master's degrees from the University of Maryland in College Park. Becky enjoyed a wonderful career teaching elementary school in Harford County for 37 years. She eventually became an assistant principal within the Harford County school system. Becky was blessed with many friends. She played bridge with dear friends. She was a skilled needle pointer and gave members of her bridge club a coveted Christmas needlework on several occasions. She also loved to sew and had five sewing machines that she used for her creations. In earlier years she was an active member of Grace United Methodist Church.

Becky was preceded in death by her beloved husband Everett and her brothers Francis and John Hall. She is survived by her nephew, William Hall of Church Hill, Maryland and his wife Ingrid. Additionally, her great nieces Jamie Coxon and Erica Hall have survived her.

Graveside Services for Margaret Cook will be held at Church Hill Cemetery 117 Cemetery Lane, Church Hill Maryland 21623 at 1:00 PM on Wednesday, March 27, 2019.

“ I've never met this lady that I know of but I was named for her, Margaret Rebecca. My family lived on Mr Will Hall's farm in Church Hill and Mom named me for their daughter. I wish I had met her. My dad Carroll Usilton really like working for Mr Hall, we lived in that farm for many years.
