“ I’m so sad about Natalie’s passing. I used to drive her on her errands, volunteering with Partners In Care and we had many laughs and many lunches together. I just loved her. I was in Florida when she passed or I would have been there. She will be missed. Sympathy to her entire family.

“ The service this evening was lovely....my Grandmother looked beautiful and everyone had such fond loving memories to share with our family....she was the rock of my life, the wisest, the wittiest, the best in all aspects of life a true woman's woman...she was there for my kids as "their" Grandmother as my mother did pass before they were born...I am so grateful that I had all the times and talks and visits and special relationship that I had for 45 years, my whole life, she was there for it all....she never missed a beat....my heart is heavy and I am thankful for the memories I hold in my heart forever!

“ Natalie was a lovely, intelligent, and kind person. We knew each other through League of Women Voters and church. Loved talking politics with her. She was always on top of current events. She was a dear, dear person.

“ Aunt “Nat” was my favorite Aunt and Godmother. Her kindness and generosity were never ending, and she was always there for my family and me. She was so intelligent and up on current events which made her so interesting to talk to. Her contribution to any conversation, on any topic, was respected. Her gifts were always so thoughtful and chosen specifically for the person’s likes and interests. She was one of a kind and will be forever missed. Family gatherings will not be the same without her. She and Ben were fabulous hosts who had so many holidays with the best food, drinks and company in their beautiful homes. She was also witty and funny and make us all laugh.
I’m so sad. Love, Jill

“ We loved Natalie for years and years as Ed’s mom and as long time Hastings-on-Hudson residents. She very kindly let me attend a realtors open house on Pinecrest Parkway. I always loved the street and when Billy and I saw the house we gave the sellers their asking price in five minutes. Had it gone to market, we most probably would have been outbid. Very grateful for all of her kindnesses and the fond memories we will always have of her and Ben. Much love to the entire family from the Kotiadis family.
