“ We had the honor of having Father Paul marry our daughter, Amie Lauriello to Bill Ostrander on October 17, 2015 at the shore. We had heard a lot about Father Paul from Amie and Bill over the years, but to appreciate the kind of person he was, you just had to meet him! He was funny, kind, quick-witted and put you at ease from the moment you said hello to him!! My daughter and son-in-law were truly blessed to have known him for so many years. They trusted him, they confided in him, and they loved him. And even though my husband and I only got to be with him for a short time, we felt the same way!!! We will always be grateful for Father Paul and he will always be special to our family.

“ To the family of Fr Paul Campbell and to all of his Parishoners,
As you know, Fr Paul was a fine gentleman and a great inspiration to us all. He was truly able to preach the word of the Lord in a manner that we could all understand and relate to in our everyday lives. He is greatly missed and will forever be in our hearts.
In the words of my 9 year old grandson, “it hurts my heart that he is gone, but do you think they get to play video games in heaven?”
Sincerely, Mollie and Joe Scharnus

“ Over the years we visited Chestertown and would always attend Sunday's Mass in Rock Hall
Father Paul was always welcoming and he was so personable
We were inspired by his sermons to live better lives
Our daughter attended daily Mass in Chestertown and respected Father Paul for his holiness
She called today with the sad news
Please know you and your family will be in our prayers during this difficult time
Also know how many souls he affected during his short time here
We were blessed to make his acquaintance
With sympathy

“ I was shocked and saddened to hear my golf buddy has moved on to a better place. About 15 months ago our friend and golf trip member passed away. Paul presided over our friend's funeral. We both were happy to be at the funeral and told each other. I'll pray Father Paul gets a set of clubs that fly straight balls in heaven. Rest easy, You are already missed.

“ Father Paul had a wonderful ability to reach people. All four of my children were confirmed at St. Christopher's, and my wife taught CCD for over 10 years. I was never confirmed, and never fully embraced the church. My daughter recently convinced me to attend adult CCD, and I agreed largely because of the few masses I attended that Father Paul performed. Selfishly I am deeply saddened that I will not get the benefit of his guidance, was hoping to gain a deeper understanding of life and faith from Father Paul. He was also a wonderful source of strength for my daughter, and profoundly helped her through very challenging times. Godspeed, may you Rest In Peace knowing that you truly enriched our lives.

“ Fr. Paul was an inspirational speaker who always managed to get me thinking about what I could do to spread Christ's love “beyond the pews”. And he did it with so much humor and humility. Between that and the wonderful uplifting music program he fostered at St. Christopher's I always left church feeling blessed and joyful. RIP Fr. Paul. Your shoes will be tough to fill.

“ Father Paul was the best priest we have ever encountered. His sermons were always inspiring and motivational. They always left you with something to think about and a catch phrase to help you remember. He was especially there for our teenage grandchildren inspiring them to step out of their comfort zones and serve their parish. He connected with them and made them feel special. For this I will be eternally grateful. We are saddened to lose a man when there was so much work yet to be done. But we will always remember him and his humor, his wit, his humility and his ability to bring us back because we really wanted to worship with him. We will miss him dearly. Our deepest sympathies to his family. Rest assured his work will continue.

“ Father Paul's sermons brought a relevance to the church that inspired us all to strive to be more Christ-like. All he asked of us was to "spread Christ beyond the pews" and I fervently hope that we will continue to do so in his memory. We are heartbroken at his passing. Our thoughts and prayers are with his family at this sad time.
