

Col. (Ret USAF) G. David Broyles

August 29, 1933 - November 8, 2019

Col. (Ret USAF) G. David Broyles of Stevensville, MD, passed away on November 8th at the age of 86. He was born on August 29, 1933, in Gallipolis, Ohio to Gladys and George Broyles. David graduated from the US Naval Academy in 1956 and, shortly after, married Emily Elizabeth Haass, affectionately known as Betty. David was proud to say he fell in love at first sight to the love of his life. Their journey began at the Naval Supply School in Georgia as newlyweds and then their first tour of duty was an unaccompanied tour of Saigon, Vietnam. Betty did join him for a short time and then returned to the state pregnant with their first child, Carla.

After they were stationed in Bath, Maine, where their second daughter Beth was born, he transferred into the Air Force Logistics Command. He was stationed in many different places with Lydia born in Ohio and Valerie in New Jersey. During his service with the Air Force, he was selected for Post graduate education and received his master's degree at the University of Maryland and his doctorate degree at the University of Alabama in accounting, finance and economics. He loved traveling all over the world especially when he was stationed at the Pentagon and held the title Executive to the Assistant Secretary of the Air Force.

David retired as a colonel after a 20-year career in the Air Force, moved 11 different times, and was proud to serve his country. His highest military decoration was the Legion of Merit while additionally having been awarded the Joint Services Commendation Medal and Air Force Commendation Medal. He was also proud to be inducted in the Millersport High School's Hall of Fame. Upon leaving the service he joined his father-in-law in a clearing and excavation company named Haass and Broyles Excavators. This company did the excavating for many public and private projects around the Washington, DC area, most notably, the Vietnam Veterans Memorial on the DC Mall.

David loved his house on the Chesapeake Bay that he called Higher Ground, across from his alma mater, the US Naval Academy, going to the Florida Keys in the winter, singing, watching birds, golf, watching Jeopardy, his porch swing, politics, telling stories, sunrises, sunsets, writing poetry, going to church, Navy beating Army, and so much more but above everything else he loved his wife, his wonderful family, and his savior. He was a generous, kind-hearted man of faith who will be dearly missed.

He is survived by four daughters, Carla Atchison (Don), Beth Clarke (Jim), Lydia French and Valerie Chick (Chris). He is the proud Grandpa to 14 grandchildren: Chad, Brett (Fiona), Meagan (Joseph), Grant, Keith, and Cole; Ashley (Chuck) and Ryan (Emilie); David (Sarah) and Sarah (Jacob); Christopher, Craig, Emily, and Connor and 9 great grandchildren, a niece Melissa Sherrer (David), and numerous cousins and friends. David now resides in heaven where he is experiencing joy beyond measure finally reunited with his bride, Betty, and all those whom he loved who have gone home. A service will be held on Thursday, November 14, 2019 at 11 am at the Kent Island United Methodist Church in Chester, MD, where friends and family may visit beginning at 10 am. Burial will follow in Greensboro Cemetery.

Cemetery

Greensboro Cemetery

Greensboro, MD,

Events

NOV Visitation 10:00AM - 11:00AM

14

Kent Island United Methodist Church
2739 Cox Neck Road, Chester, MD, US

NOV Service 11:00AM

14

Kent Island United Methodist Church
2739 Cox Neck Road, Chester, MD, US

Comments

“ A tribute video has been added.

Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home - November 13, 2019 at 03:14 PM

“ Strength & Solace Spray was purchased for the family of Col. (Ret USAF) G. David Broyles.

November 13, 2019 at 01:26 PM

“ Be My Love Bouquet with Red Roses was purchased for the family of Col. (Ret USAF) G. David Broyles.

November 12, 2019 at 05:35 PM

“ Divine Peace Bouquet was purchased for the family of Col. (Ret USAF) G. David Broyles.

November 12, 2019 at 12:17 PM

“ I was so sorry to hear of the death of Dave Broyles. We were next door neighbors in University Park for fifteen years before he and Betty moved to Kent Island. They were a wonderful couple and so proud of their family. Be sure of my prayers for them and for their children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. Brother Jordan Baxter.

Jordan Baxter - November 12, 2019 at 10:30 AM

“ I will forever see the Colonel standing on the deck gazing out at the water and the beautiful sunsets over the Bay. May he Rest In Peace and may your family find comfort in your memories. -
Janet Grard, neighbor

Janet Grard - November 11, 2019 at 05:23 PM