

A. Edward Cannon

December 8, 1999

A. Edward Cannon of Chestertown MD, died December 8, 1999, at the Wilmington Regional Medical Center in Elsmere, DE, after a long illness. He was 77 years old.

Mr. Cannon was born near Ingleside MD, on January 10, 1922, the son of the late Arthur Herman and Lillie Mae Schuyler Cannon. He attended school in Ingleside, MD, and learned his trade as a carpenter from Paul Bostic. Mr. Cannon served in the US Army during WWII in the 29th division Field Artillery in Iceland and the European Theater. On July 14, 1945, he married Helen Virginia Taylor of Sudlersville MD. Mr. Cannon returned to his trade, as a carpenter, working for Mr. Bostic after the war. He then took a position as the carpenter foreman for Phillips and Thompson General Contractors, working there for several years. Mr. Cannon then went to work for Ken VanSant and Chesapeake Steel as a foreman. He retired in 1985.

In 1986, he moved from Church Hill, MD, to Chestertown MD. In his retirement years, he will be remembered for being a true craftsman. One of the many items he refurbished was steamer trunks that are found around the Chestertown area antique shops. He was a member of Frank M. Jarvis American Legion Post #36 in Chestertown.

He is survived by his wife, Helen Virginia Taylor Cannon; two sons, Michael
