She is survived by her two sons, William N. Cheezum, Jr., and his wife Barbara of Cordova, MD, and W. Ronald Cheezum and his wife Sherry of Salisbury; a brother, Doug Cheezum and his wife Ginny of Cordova; a daughter-in-law, Geraldine Cheezum of Easton; eight grandchildren; sixteen great-grandchildren; one great-great grandchild; and numerous nieces,

She was preceded in death by her husband, William N. Cheezum, Sr., who died in 1963; a son, Robert R. Cheezum, Sr.; a brother, Johnnie Grenadier; and sisters, Dorothy Cheezum and Margaret Jones.

A visitation will be held on Sunday, February 24, 2013, from 3 - 5 p.m. at Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, P.A., 200 S. Harrison St. in Easton. “ Aunt Aggie, I will miss greatly. As a little girl and as a grown woman, I treasured your warmth, your hugs and your strong faith. You were always there when a family member or friend needed you with cards, food, prayers and whatever else was needed. You had a smile that would light up a room. I loved to listen to you and Mom-Mom tell stories about your childhood. It brings much comfort knowing that you will spend eternity with our Lord and your loved ones who went before you. I love you and will hold your memory in my heart.

“ Natalie and I are thinking of you at this time and although we did not know Agnes she must have been a wonderful person to have such a wonderful family and to have raised such a special son Ronny who is a special light on this earth and his dear wife Sherry also an angel. We feel your sorrow but just as you shared our grief in recent months take comfort in knowing that she has been released from further anguish and will be at peace and suffer no more. Our prayers are with you at this time.

Our loss is surely heaven's gain and we have so many wonderful memories of Miss Agnes. She was so special in so many ways. Her radiant smile week after week, day by day, just radiated out to everyone she came in contact with. Ms. Agnes just loved people and it showed. Her love for her Lord was evident every day. What an amazing lady she was! Her faithfulness is now rewarded and this dear saint is now rejoicing, and has joined many of her loved ones that went on before her. Thank you Ms. Agnes for showing us who Jesus is in the flesh. We rejoice with you and thank you family for sharing your beloved Mother with us. Our lives have been enriched and blessed by her. How wonderful the world would be if it were filled with that person of Miss Agnes. God bless you. Joyce and Robert
