“ Grandma, nothing has been the same since your passing. When you became ill it's as though the family started to fall apart and when you passed on, the foundation cracked. The love and family bond we all once had became warfare between all of us. I sat watching in horror over time and being so angry that they didn't follow your wishes to love and be there for one another. You were my very best friend in the whole world and losing you left a space I can't fill. I think of you often and feel your presence. Protecting me, guiding me through the turmoil. Lately your presence has been so strong. So powerful and I'm so grateful to have you. I just wish I could hug you, play yahtzee and drink coffee with you before anyone else awoke and have our talks. I wish you could of met your great grandchildren. You have sooooo many now. Kiayah and Caeden are my two, Kiayah turns 14 tomorrow and Caeden 11 in March. Tarah has a baby girl Aria, Bryan and Kelsey have twins Dexter and Lincoln and a baby girl Vivian. Caity has Colt and and newborn born on my birthday last year. Ryan and his wife have Summer and Christian and his wife have a baby boy Issac due in April. 10 great grand babies and my goodness they are all such beautiful and precious souls. How I wish you were here. I love you to infinity and beyond. Please keep watching over us. I hope I can make you proud ♡♡♡
