

Agnes Vivian Williamson

August 31, 2006

On Thursday, August 31, 2006 Agnes Vivian Williamsom (Nee Klasmeier) of Ellicott City, MD, died suddenly. She is survived by her husband of 57 years, Dr. Edgar P. Williamson II; son, Edgar P. Williamson III; daughter, Barbara Litzau; and two grandchildren, Amanda Schutz of St. Louis, Missouri, and Michael Litzau of Arlington, VA; and her sister, Katherine Hartnett of Catonsville, MD.

She was born in Baltimore on February 2, 1927. She graduated from Seton High School and received her nursing degree from St. Agnes Hospital in 1948.

A long time resident of Ellicott City, she was active in St. John's Episcopal Church and in the Split Rail Garden Club, of which she was a founding member.

She and her husband recently moved to William Hill Manor in Easton, MD.

Services were held on Saturday, September 2, 2006 in the auditorium at Will Hill Manor.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests memorial contributions to your local American Heart Association.

Arrangements are by Fellows, Helfenbein and Newnam Funeral Home, P.A.,
Easton, MD.
