Bud and his Family were our neighbors in Woodbridge Valley. We raised our families together. Tony, Joe, Annie, and Gina were constant visitors at our home playing endlessly in our backyard together. On Friday nights, a few neighbors including the children would get together for pizza and subs and sing karaoke until the early hours. Bud was our lead singer, and he knew every word. He was also our sons' baseball coach and was always willing to put in the extra time with the children. Through the years, many wonderful memories. Thanks for the memories, Bud, we will miss you! “ Robin and I lived next door to Al and Diane when we first moved to the eastern shore in 2011. We couldn't have picked a better place to get started here. I used to go crabbing with Al and he taught me so much about enjoying the water. He made us feel so welcome. I wish you eternal peace where no pain or sorrow can find you, rest in peace my friend. “ My sympathy goes out to the Califano families, I knew Buddy when we both worked at Milford Mill Pool. We started to pal around and do the crazy things we did in the 60's , Ocean City, Gino's, Amechies all the hang outs. Couldn't be around Buddy and not have fun. His family was the best working on Joe's car patching muffler and little league where Joe was coach and Kenny was a smooth Lefty. Buddy friend you will be missed.

“ So many fond memories of Bud and the Califano Family. Lots of fun each summer when Nita and Buddy came to stay the summer with their Grand Pop in Pa. Then more happy times when Sue and Joe and rest of the family arrived at the farm to take them home. Then the memories of visiting the family on Milford Mill Road with homemade pizza and card playing. Also memories of going to the beach with them. I would have to drive across the Chesapeake Bridge while Sue would cover her eyes. So much fun together. I miss those days. Buddy was always so happy, so much fun and full of kindness and love. Sympathy, prayers and hugs to Diane and all family members!

“ We were pretty close friends with Bud through high school, Milford Mill Pool and even later. Sometimes circumstances change the closeness but not the true friendship. Cherished memories of OC, billiards, poker, and his mom's homemade pizza! Glad to have had the opportunity to sing karaoke with Bud a few years back. RIP Bud 🥹. Ray & Connie Schultheis
