“ I wanted to take a moment and share a few memories of my dad. We didn't always see eye to eye, and during my younger years I must say he was strict on us kids. With his military and State Police background he would only tell us something once! But he WAS fair. He always had an ear and would explain things as best he could at our level. As I got older he said he was always there, and he was. He was direct and to the point. People say he and I were alot alike. I take that as a compliment! Thanks for being you!!! I sure miss you dad!!! Two thumbs up!!! Keith

“ So sorry to hear of the passing of "Mr. Al". He was a great friend of our Mom and Dad and we have fond memories of Mr. Al and Miss Jeanette visiting us from the "city". Mr. Al and Dad loved to bring their "music" (guitars), anywhere they could, and most always there was a party at our house! They spent many hours playing music together with a few other friends, Mr. Francis (Elliott) and Mr. Scottie, to name a few! I can only imagine the reunion they are having right now! We were so fortunate to visit Mr. Al and Glenda at their home last year. Mr. Al was just as we remembered him! He was a kind man and only said the nicest things about people. He told us some of the funny stories from his Maryland State Police days! He had us all laughing! We reminisced about the old days and it brought back so many memories. We will miss him as I'm sure all of you will. May God Bless you all during this difficult time.

*Love,
Rusty, Sharon, Ellie, and Steve*

Well said Sharon. Mr. Al had such a subtle, but profound positive influence in our lives. We loved the energy that he seemed to always have. He would have loved the story of us coming home that night in the heavy eastern shore fog after visiting him and Glenda. When I finally was able to go faster than 40 mph when we got to Elkton at 1am. Got pulled over on Rt 40 for going 60 in a 50. I told the officer I was only going 60, he says, "speed limit is 50 - see what I'm saying?" 1 am on a Saturday night. "Yes sir. I see what you're saying" Thank God for Mr Al's positive influence. Only got a warning!. We'll miss you Mr. Al.
