

Aldamae L. Kennedy

March 15, 1929 - November 9, 2020

Aldamae L (Wilson) Kennedy went to be with her Lord on November 9, 2020, surrounded by her loving family. She was 91. Born March 15, 1929, in Twin Rocks, PA, to the Late Oliver Roy Wilson and Anna Gertrude (Willman) Wilson.

Aldamae was devoted to serving the Lord. In her teen years, she and her sister, Evelyn, traveled the East Coast as Evangelistic Singers. While in Oxford, MD, she met the love of her life, William Henry Kennedy, whom she married on February 24, 1950. They made their home on Kirby Wharf Farm in Trappe, MD. They moved to Preston, MD, then finally to Easton, MD. They served the Lord together, complimenting each others' gifts, for 39 years. Henry passed away on July 23, 1989. They attended the Trappe Pilgrim Holiness Church, the Easton Church of the Nazarene, and the Bethlehem Wesleyan Church, where Aldamae played the piano, taught, and sang.

Aldamae worked at Trappe Packing, Whitmans Electronics, Jackson Fusee, retired from Waverly Press Proof Reading Dept, sat with children at the YMCA, and was a private sitter for children and Ms. Helen Matthews.

Aldamae loved children and, throughout her life, you would find her serving the children through church programs, VBS, creating crafts, singing, and teaching. She enjoyed reading and memorizing the Bible, playing the piano and accordion, singing, crocheting, knitting, doing puzzles. She had a ceramic business that she used for God's work. In her last year, she learned to do puzzles on the computer. Aldamae loved spending time with her grandchildren, teaching them, especially, to love the Lord. She enjoyed watching tennis, bowling, ladies basketball, ladies softball, and the Orioles, as her nickname in the family was Brooksie, for Brooks Robinson. She enjoyed family reunions.

Aldamae is survived by her two daughters, Ruth R (John) Martin and Janice L (Gordon Jr) Cook; four grandsons, Jared (Kelly) Martin, Lee (Leah) Cook, James Martin Sr, and Jason (Anna) Martin; fourteen great-grandchildren, James Aaron Jr(Shanna), Cody, Jared II(Aubrey), Jessica(Johnny), Jenna(Mike), William(Emily), Jacob, Julie, Jeremiah, Joshua, Jadon, Katelyn, Macy and Clay; and six great-great grandchildren, Joshua, Remmi, Lucas, William Henry II, Matthew-John, and Cassidy. She is also survived by her brother, Clay Wilson; a sister-in-law, Catherine Wilson; and many nieces and nephews whom she loved dearly. In addition to her parents and her husband, she is preceded in death by her brothers, Oliver and Charles Wilson; sisters Velma Ritchey, Evelyn Landrum, infant Mazzie Wilson, and Ruth Evans; and an infant great-grandchildren, Matthew and Macey Martin.

A visitation will be held from 11a.m. – 12 p.m. at Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, P.A., 200 S. Harrison St., Easton, on Saturday, November 14, 2020. A graveside service will follow at 12:30 p.m. at Spring Hill Cemetery in Easton.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Talbot Hospice Foundation, Inc, 586 Cynwood Drive, Easton, MD 21601.

“ I had the privilege of calling such a wonderful woman Aunt AldaMae. I love her dearly and much of who I am today has been due to her love, prayers and constructive leadership. She was faithful to me and encouraged me to draw close to God and be ready to meet Him. We spent a lot of time talking. She would tell me lots of stories about fun family times. I leaned on her a lot after Mom passed. I remember one time in particular that I just walked in the door, sat down on the floor in front of her, laid my head on her lap and cried. Aunt Alda prayed with me, we had a long talk and as always, I left her home stronger and encouraged. Those memories will live in my heart. You are now in the place you longed to be. How could I be sad for you? You will be missed tremendously.

“ I cherish the times spent with Mrs. Kennedy. I loved hearing her stories and she lit up every time she talked about her beautiful family and singing. She lived an amazing life honoring God and her faith and joy will remain in our hearts. Hugs and prayers to her family from The Snow's.
