“ Dear Lynn and Larry,

Alex and I met at the World Bank in 1985 when I was hired in the same office. We immediately became friends. Our friendship lasted over 30 years. She was a seasoned professional in her position. Many of the staff depended on her expertise. After she retired, she continued to meet with me, Gloria Patricia, and Diane, for lunch, Christmas parties, and other functions. Alex was a faithful and a generous friend. We admired her sense of humor and an air of elegance. Sometimes, we may not think of her birthday on the actual day, but she has NEVER missed our birthdays, anniversaries, our children, and grandchildren's birthdays.

She often spoke about her family and shared many, many pictures over the years. On all her cards she shared updates of her life and the niece and nephews. I feel like I know her close family members. She always expressed her love for her nephews and niece. She has taken her rightful place in heaven as an angel watching over her family.

Know that I will miss her greatly. May God give you much grace during this difficult time.

“ Dear Lynn and Larry,

I have such fond memories of all of you, and your parents as well, from our Chestertown childhood, and on into your Wilmington days. We certainly had a spectacular and special freedom in our free-range farm existence....very lucky indeed! Alex was a little older than me, but always interesting and Larry and I had a visit years ago when I lived outside of Annapolis. I wish I had known Alex was so close by in Washington - I would love to have connected with her. I have a really great photo of your Dad at my wedding, in some of his Austrian garb - so debonaire, and such a wonderful friend to my Dad. This is a lovely photo of Alex - looking so like your beautiful Mother.

I am so sorry not to be able to attend the service for Alex and have chance to visit both of you, Lynn and Larry - I leave the country the next day and am more than backed up on that Saturday. My parents are buried at St.Paul's....it is such a peaceful place.

“ Dear loved ones of Alexandra,

I am sad to learn of her passing. I recall walking with Alexandra around the exercise room at George Washington University. I met her through the Foggy Bottom West End Village. I will miss her.

“ Dear Family, Please accept my condolences on our loss of Alexandra. She was a dear friend. Like many others, I met Alexandra through The Foggy Bottom West End Village and was happy to drive her to some of our village events, such as garden and house tours. Our lunch bunch had an lovely lunch at the Bombay Club September 27th. She was extremely fond of service dog Windsor. She gave him treats for his birthday but gave me one of her lovely needlepoint bags. I am very glad to have known her. She will be deeply missed.

“ *Dear family,
I met Alexandra through the FoggyBottom/WestEnd Village. We attended some of the same programs and I know she especially enjoyed the monthly Laughter Program. She would come prepared with her funny stories, jokes and riddles to share. She enjoyed laughing and will be missed by the group.*
