

Alford Holden

February 24, 1935 - September 11, 2013

Alford Thomas Holden of Flowery Branch, GA, passed away in his sleep in his home, September 11, 2013. He was 78.

Mr. Holden was born on February 24, 1935, in Easton, MD, one of seven children to the late Wilfred Thomas and Bertha Dora Taylor Holden.

He grew up and worked on the family farm near McGinnes Corner until his first marriage to Patricia Baker. Together they had two sons. They moved to Wye Island where he did farm work. Due to his poor eyesight, he had to leave farming, and the family moved to Annapolis where he managed a snack bar in the Sears Department store for many years.

He remarried to Beatrice Tigh, and together they had a son and a daughter. They moved to Florida where he made a living doing carpentry work and other odd jobs.

Mr. Holden could do most anything, except drive a vehicle. He loved to travel, go to church, help other people, and come home to Maryland for family visits.

He is survived by three sons, James Bryant Holden and wife Deena of Gainesville, GA; Lee Holden and his wife, Charleen of Federalsburg, MD, and Benjamin Holden of Del Mar, MD; a daughter, Amy Combs and husband

David of Flowery Branch, GA. along with his sisters: Betty Louise Thompson of Sudlersville, MD, Mary Ann Taylor of Chestertown, MD, and Patricia May and her husband Roger Thompson of Chestertown, MD. He is also survived by 10 grandchildren, ten nieces and nephews; a grand niece; and two great-grand nephews.

In addition to his parents, he was predeceased by his siblings: Wilford Harris Holden, Kenneth Wesley Holden, and Joyce Marie Holden.

Funeral services will be held one Wednesday, September 18, 2013, at 1 p.m. at Fellows, Helfenbein, and Newnam Funeral Home, 130 Speer Road, Chestertown, MD, where relatives and friends may call one hour prior.

Interment will be in Church Hill Cemetery following the service.
