“ I met Al at the Aspen Hill Panera. I think it was a couple of years before he actually started talking to me :). Once he did, I realized what a fine person he was. He reminded me of my own father, who died last year ... decent, kind, understated. All of us at Aspen Hill Panera, customers and employees alike who knew Al, will miss him. My sincere condolences.

Mr. Carchedi was a kind and gentle man. He also had a great sense of humor! He made me feel so comfortable in his presence. He was my first employer in the Washington, DC area, coming from Brooklyn, New York. He welcomed me to the Riggs National Bank. I will always cherish the opportunity of knowing such a genuine and down to earth soul!

Dear Family, Met Al when we were employees of Riggs Natl. Bank and maintained a friendship even after we both left the bank. I can still hear his laugh whenever we would talk and joke about our Italian heritage, he had the accent down pat. God rest his soul and may He bless Al's loving family. Family history with Babe and all of the Carchedi's has been long and endearing. We are saddened at this news but take solace in the fact that somewhere high up, Babe and my dad are probably together watching Redskin games from the best seats in the house. We love you all.

Words cannot express the loss of a wonderful brother. Not too long ago, at a dinner at our house, Babe provided the entertainment with his witty remarks enhanced by brother Bitz' repartee. Erma and I were their appreciative audience along with cousin Talley D'Oria and his family who were visiting from North Carolina. Our sincere condolences to Angela, Tina, Carla, Vincent, and Mitch. We love you, brother.
