

Alice R. Leonard

January 22, 2006

Alice R. Leonard, 96, died peacefully on Sunday, Jan. 22, at Memorial Hospital at Easton after a short illness. She was born Jan. 13, 1910, in Easton, to the late Emory A. Ross and Alice Ryan Ross.

Alice was a teacher for over 40 years in various schools throughout Talbot County. She received a B.S. from Salisbury State College in 1968. During her career, which began in a one-room schoolhouse in Goldsborough Neck and concluded with her retirement from Easton Elementary School, she touched and influenced many lives and was often recognized by former students on her errands around town. She was married for seven years to Francis Leonard of Trappe.

Alice was a member of Saints Peter and Paul Catholic Church and the Retired Teachers Association. She loved traveling, being at the beach, cooking, jigsaw puzzles, her cat, Tasha, and sharing time with friends and family. Her warm, generous, and fun-loving spirit has left many cherished memories of her and a reminder to live life with joy.

She is survived by her sister, Rachel Startt of Easton; eleven nieces and nephews; and many wonderful friends. She is predeceased by her brothers, Emory A. Ross, S.J., Robert Ross, James Ross, William Ross, Thomas Ross, and Charles Ross; and two nieces, Diane and Elizabeth Ross.

A funeral mass will be held at 10 a.m., on Saturday, Jan. 28, at St. Michaels Catholic Chapel. Interment will follow at the Spring Hill Cemetery in Easton.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that memorial donations be made to the Talbot Hospice Foundation, 586 Cynwood Drive, Easton, MD 21601 or the palliative care room at Memorial Hospital at Easton, c/o Memorial Hospital Foundation, PO Box 1846, Easton, MD 21601.

Arrangements are by Fellows, Helfenbein and Newnam Funeral Home, P. A., Easton, MD.
