“ Many thanks to the folks involved in bringing this ceremony to us via the internet. So lovely to be present, albeit virtually. I'm sorry that I never met Alicia. I am grateful to know and work with her son, Tom, whose kind and gentle nature is a testimony to Alicia's firm hand and guidance. I'm not saying Tom won't blow a squirrel's head clean off, but he's always treated me like family. God bless Alicia. It's a beautiful time of year to be reunited with God. And happy birthday, sweetie. I've always thought that death is birth in reverse. Kinda scary. Always special and unique. Much love to the Bourne family.

“ I may not have every met Alicia, but I have been friends with her son Tom for 20 years. I can say that she raised one of the most caring, supporting and loving people that I know. She may have passed on to a better place but her legacy lives on in her children, grand children and great grand children.
