“ To Brother Allen and the Cohey Family - On behalf of the officers and members of Engine Company 17 of the D.C. Fire and EMS Department, I would like to offer our deep sympathy on the loss of Pop Pop Cohey! Never is it easy to lose the patriarch of such a wonderful family, but certainly not given the difficult times that you all have experienced recently. Our hearts go out to each of you and we all would like you to know that we are here for your family, should you need anything. Many of us feel a tremendous sense of honor in having met Pop Pop recently and shall cherish that memory each time we work with Allen.

Respectfully,
