“ I will always fondly remember the last day on which I worked for Mr. Roys. He, Mr. Peed, and I spent a beautiful summer afternoon (and part of the evening, if the truth be told) at a restaurant on Broome's Island (Shortys?) eating crab cakes and enjoying the scenery and each other's company.

Mr. Roys was always a class act with an infectious positive attitude and a big smile that made any stranger a new friend. To me, he (and Mr. Criste) were part of the "greatest generation" of Toyota Dealers. I'll miss him, as will so many others.

I can remember all the way back to when I was a little girl, the excitement I had when I heard the announcement that Uncle Allen was coming for a visit. Going to miss him, but glad to know that he and my Grandmother (his sister Rosemary Elizabeth Roys Estes) will be up there pulling shenanigans with him for eternity.*

“ *As one of the Toyota dealership morning crew members, Al's early morning "inspirational pep talks", as only Al could, were always enlightening, gave you a good laugh, and got you going in the morning. Even though Al was the company owner, I always considered him a friend. He was someone who made you feel that you were his friend. I am sorry that he never got to see the new building completed that he had wanted and talked about for so many years. He will be missed in many ways. My condolences to the Roys family.
