

Allison Adele Lozinak

January 3, 1960 - September 9, 2025

Allison Adele Lozinak, born on January 3, 1960, in Wilmington, Delaware, departed from this world too soon on September 9, 2025, at the age of 65. She has resided in Easton, Maryland, for the past 20 years, where her warmth and kindness were cherished by family and friends alike.

Allison's life was a testament to resilience and dedication. A graduate of Seaford Senior High School in 1978, she embarked on her young life with remarkable strength and independence, raising two young children mostly on her own during her early 20s. Her journey was marked by a steadfast work ethic and an unwavering commitment to her career and others.

In 2004, Allison married Douglas A. Lozinak, the love of her life, forming a union that brought her immense joy and companionship. Professionally, she consistently excelled in customer service and management roles due to her diligence and skill. It was this tenacity that carried her through life, always with a smile and an easy laugh that brightened the lives of those around her.

Allison was known for being a big Baltimore Ravens fan, loved cooking shows and mastering new dishes, traveling with her husband Doug, and spending time with her granddaughters and kitty cats. She leaves behind her brother, Garrett Moseley; her son, Adam Fleetwood; her daughter, Jillian Ganson; and her granddaughters, Kalaya Ganson and Lydia Jenkins.

A memorial service to honor Allison's life will be held on Thursday, September 25, 2025, at Fellows, Helfenbein & Newman Funeral Home, 200 S. Harrison St., Easton, MD 21601, from 1:00 to 3:00 PM. Guests are welcome to join at any time during these hours to share in food, refreshments, and memories.

Thank you, Allison, for the love, the laughter, and the lessons. You will forever be in our hearts.
