

Allison Faye McIntyre

March 29, 1969 - October 3, 2024

Allison was born on March 29, 1969, with a twinkle in her eyes and a mischievous smile, as if she knew something funny that she couldn't wait to share with the world. She was blessed with the gift of laughter and big, warm hugs that she freely gave to those who wanted one. Allison didn't collect material things; she collected friends. All that mattered to her were people and animals, and she devoted herself to helping them in any way they needed.

Allison's focus in life was to provide a safe haven for her children, offering endless support and nurturing their dreams. Thanks to her boundless affection and countless sacrifices, her children have many cherished memories. The love she has given them has shaped them into kind and resilient individuals who will share that love with others.

Allison joined her son, Gage Svadeba in heaven on October 3, 2024, leaving us far too soon. She will be greatly missed by the many people whose lives she touched, but she will be forever remembered in our hearts.

She is survived by her loving partner, Sajid Muhammad, her precious children, Desiree McIntyre, Nicole McIntyre, Danny McIntyre, and her dear grandson Ashton McIntyre; her parents, Wayne (Kathleen) McIntyre and Jo Ann (Robert) Bell, and grandmother, Elizabeth Chiddo; sisters, Stacy Berusch and Kim (Roger Bott) McIntyre-Bott; nephews, Chris Thompson (wife Erin and children Blake and Nolan), Devin (Bridget) Aventurine, Nathan Berusch, and Jake Berusch.

Services will be held privately.

“ When I first met Allison in her home, I wished we lived closer because she was so friendly and kind. We had so much in common that I instantly wanted to be her friend. She made it feel as though we had known each other for years. Can you grieve for someone you met only once? Absolutely. Rest in peace, Allison.
