

Miss Allison Brooke Pfeiffer

January 5, 1999 - March 28, 2015

Allison Brooke Pfeiffer of Queen Anne, MD died, Saturday, March 28, 2015 at her home. She was 16.

Born January 5, 1999, she was the daughter of Robert Merle and Ryan Christine Oliver Pfeiffer of Queen Anne. She was a student of Queen Anne's County High School. From an early age you could tell Allison had a love for life and music, especially Christmas music. Her laugh was contagious, her soul was kind, and the soft spot she carried for the "Old People" especially her grandparents and great grandparents was truly unconditional love. Allison was extremely real and genuine. She had a love for cheer as she was on the Queen Anne's County High School Cheerleading team, Stat Girl for the Lacrosse team, member of the Ultimate Frisbee Club and she was a member of The Centreville United Methodist Church Youth Group. Her hobbies included traveling, especially cruises (platinum member), spending time with her friends and family making them laugh and singing. Allison also had an abundance of friends that she loved, and in turn, she was loved by many.

Allison is survived by her parents; brother Robbie Pfeiffer of Queen Anne; Paternal grandparents, Bob and Cathy Pfeiffer of Queenstown; Maternal grandparents, Terry and Linda Oliver of Stevensville; maternal great grandmother, Dorothy Eibler of Pasadena; Uncles and Aunts Jason and Jessica Oliver of Marydel, MD, Ross and Maggie Oliver of Stevensville, MD; and Helen Gardner of Queenstown and many other aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

A visitation will be on Wednesday April 1, 2015 from 2-4pm and 6-8pm at Centreville United Methodist Church in Centreville where the funeral service will be on Thursday, April 2, 2015 at 11am. Burial will follow in Chesterfield Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers contributions may be made to The Allison Pfeiffer Memorial Fund P.O. Box 253 Grasonville, MD 21638 Arrangements made by Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, Centreville. Online condolences at www.fhnfuneralhome.com

I'm truly at a loss for words right now. God i ask right now In Jesus name that you give this family the strength to push through this hard time. Lord, your word says that we are not to question you, and as hard as that is, in times like this, God just take those questions and turn them into Comfort! God I pray that you POUR DOWN YOUR HOLY SPIRIT into the lives of this broken family right now, God I ask in your name that you just Pour out a Peace on them like never before... Your perfect peace that PASSES ALL UNDERSTANDING! God we know that this life is full of hurt and pain, But just remind the family that this pain IS only temporary, and after this life, there is everlasting peace, Joy, happiness, No hurt, no pain, no suffering, no crying, AND THATS were their BEAUTIFUL ANGEL IS NOW-FLYING HIGH, rejoicing with your angels. Until they meet again, God continue to Bless this family and watch over them like never before...Wrap them up in your arms, and keep each and every one of them! Lord WALK with Them, Guide their steps, CARRY THEM when they are weak, keep them strong, and wipe their tears! God I've SEEN you do it Before...Lord do it again! In YOUR MIGHTY NAME I PRAY.....AMEN AMEN AMEN!

“ My thoughts and prayers are with the parents, family, and friends of Allison. I know her parents just want to curl up and fade away or do anything to change this because I was where they are 7 months ago myself, after losing my 19 year old son. I am praying for God to comfort you in this time of great need. It is still very hard 7 months out, but it does get a little easier to continue living even without them. I am told by people decades out from losing their children the burden remains heavy 10-20 even 30 years out, but it can be carried. I want you to know this because I know how you feel right now. You cannot see beyond this tragedy right now and I don't want you to feel hopeless because of it. For now I send prayers of comfort and healing.

In my 18 years of teaching, I rarely have met a student who is such a true spirit, that her idea of a friend had no limits. She crossed all groups of students of all grade levels. I looked forward to 4th period every day, just so she could walk in the room and start bantering with me. She touched so many lives, mine included. I have come to know that when she told me I reminded her of her grandmother, it was a huge compliment. There wasn't a day that went by that she didn't make me smile. I feel blessed that our paths crossed. Allison, you can hijack my Pandora and put on Taylor Swift any day!! Much love and heartfelt prayers to everyone feeling this tremendous loss.

“ *Little Snowdrop
The world may never notice
If a Snowdrop doesn't bloom,
Or even pause to wonder
If the petals fall too soon.
But every life that ever forms,
Or ever comes to be,
Touches the world in some small way
For all eternity.
The little one we long for
Was swiftly here and gone.
But the love that was then planted
Is a light that still shines on.
And though our arms are empty,
Our hearts know what to do.
Every beating of our hearts
Says of our love for you.

“ Pfeiffer family - you don't know me but I live in the Centreville area and know many people affected by the loss of Allison. I want to send my condolences to you all and my hope that you can find comfort in each other. My family lost a child at the age of 8; I'm aware of the heartache losing a child brings. I'm so very sorry for your loss. I know there are no words that can help you find comfort but please know I'm thinking of your family during this tragic time.

“ I am fortunate be the only teacher at QACHS that can say that they teach every student in the school before they graduate. As a result I tell my 9th graders every quarter it will be hard to get to know them well because of that. But last year one student decided that was not going to be the case with her. Allison Pfeiffer said, "you will remember my name and won't forget me". And she made sure of that every day , smiling , joking, and visiting between classes. When she finished taking Health as a class, it was not unusual for me to be in the middle of teaching a class only to have the door open and Allison walk in and sit down and ask, "Can I stay and take this class again"? Reluctantly, I would send her on her way to wherever she was supposed to be. Even this year, as a Sophomore, she came back many times to say hi, to ask how I was doing, to ask help with a problem. When she left, I always felt better. That's just the way she was. She had a smile that could light up a room. She was one of a kind. And no Allison, I won't forget you, you made sure of that! I miss you and will always love you.

“ The first time I met Allison, she stopped me in my tracks- literally. I was driving my son JP to a camp at Tuckahoe State Park and this beautiful girl was standing in the middle of the road with a huge smile and a sign for lemonade. I stopped and made a purchase and spent some time talking with Allison. She impressed me with her energy and determination. Needless to say, we stopped again later that afternoon on the way back from camp! Thought the years we have always called her the lemonade stand girl and smiled. We are so sorry for the loss of this fun loving young lady.

She was the student that teachers would recommend if subs needed any help, she was sweet and had a beautiful soul. She will always be remembered. “ Words cannot express the sorrow we feel .... we remember Allison's warm greetings when we were new to the community...a plate of cookies and young brother Robbie in tow. In the summer we would be greeted at the community entrance by a bubbly, smiley, young girl jumping and waving her arms to stop the car to buy fresh made lemonade. Then, the entertainment.....Allison was not shy....she, again with Robbie in tow, came to perform a skit, which included a song and dance routine which she and a friend had put together. Robbie was their scout - knocking on the door to ask if it would be OK for them to come perform - at 4! A truly wonderful and caring family has lost a daughter, and it is tragic. Such a wonderful family.....shattered by such a tragedy. We pray for your daily strength to help you through this difficult time. All our love, Jim & Amy Griffith
