

Alva Diegel Kirchenbauer

July 23, 2000

Alva Diegel Kirchenbauer of Stevensville, formerly of Baltimore died at the North Arundel Hospital, Annapolis on Sunday, July 23, 2000. She was 71.

Born May 10, 1929 in Baltimore, she was the daughter of the late James and Elizabeth Eichert McDairmant. After graduating from high school she worked as an Executive Secretary for the VanSant Dugdale advertising firm for 17 years and for the Davisson Chemical in Curtis Bay and later retired from the W.R. Grace Chemical Co. in 1984. Her first husband, Irvin F. Diegel died in 1978. In 1983 she moved to Stevensville where she married George William Kirchenbauer. Mr. Kirchenbauer died in 1994. She was a member of the Ladies Auxiliary, VFW Post #278, Stevensville and a member of the Stevensville Elks Lodge. Her hobbies included eating steamed crabs, working crossword puzzles, watching television, bingo and dining out with her family. She had a great sense of humor and was a strong-willed woman with a great zest for life.

Mrs. Kirchenbauer is survived by two sons, Irvin F. Diegel and Michael J. Diegel, both of Baltimore; two daughters, Shirley A. Lamb of Severn and Donna M. Johnson of Glen Burnie; a sister, Frances Ferrin of Berlin and three grandchildren.
