

Amanda Lee McGinnes

October 15, 1999

Amanda Lee McGinnes of Chestertown, MD, died October 15, 1999, at her home. She was 71.

She was born in Roberts Station near Church Hill, MD, on February 7, 1928, the daughter of the late Medford and Louise Altvater Coursey. Mrs. McGinnes graduated from Church Hill High School and attended Goldey Beacom Business College. She married Ralph W. McGinnes in 1946, and they made their home near Church Hill.

Mrs. McGinnes worked for Queen Anne's County as a secretary for Trial Magistrate and Planning and Zoning. In 1965, she and her husband moved to Deep Landing near Chestertown, and, in 1983, she retired from Queen Anne's County employment.

Mrs. McGinnes was a devoted member of Chestertown Baptist Church, attending nearly 20 years. She also enjoyed knitting, reading, and attending church.

In addition to her husband of 53 years, she is survived by a son, Mac McGinnes of Church Hill; two grandchildren, Anne Louise McGinnes of Rock Hall, and Rebecca "Cissy" McGinnes of Church Hill, along with a dear friend, Angie Jones of Chestertown.

Funeral services will be held on Monday October 18, 1999, at 11 a.m. at Chestertown Baptist Church. Relatives and friends may call at the church one-hour prior to the service. Interment will be in Crumpton Cemetery. Those serving as pallbearers are Billy, Bobby, Jerry, Craig, Jeff, Abe, and Andrew McGinnes along with Sean Wilson.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to Hospice of Queen Anne's County, 300 Del Rhodes Ave., Queenstown, MD 21658.
