

Amy Rebecca Deosaran

July 25, 1975 - November 20, 2015

Amy Rebecca Deosaran of Centreville, MD, passed away on Friday, November 20, 2015, at University of Maryland Shore Medical Center in Easton. She was 40.

Amy was born in Frederick, MD, on July 25, 1975. After graduating from Brunswick High School, Amy worked in accounting for many years before dedicating her time to wildlife conservation. In recent years, Amy spent countless hours consulting with individuals, communities, organizations and governments all over the world promoting wildlife conservation. Amy was extremely passionate about sharks and teaching people how important sharks are in the ecosystem.

Amy loved the outdoors. Whether by boat or on land, Amy took in everything nature had to offer. She enjoyed walking beaches looking for sea glass, hiking through the forest studying animal tracks, and counting the various species of birds in the area. Above all else, Amy always put her family and friends first, offering a compassionate heart to anyone in need.

Amy is survived by her loving husband, Scott Deosaran, whom she married in 2002; her mother, Suzanne Atwood Ramsburg and her husband Herbert of Hedgesville, WV; her son, Nicholas Deosaran; maternal grandfather, Gerald Karn; and a cousin, Jennifer Blackburn of Frederick, MD. She was preceded in death by her grandmother, Eva Karn.

A visitation will from 2-4 pm on Saturday, November 28, 2015, at Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home. P.A. in Centreville.

In lieu of flowers, please make a donation in Amy's honor to National Wildlife Federation (www.nwf.org) or Defenders of Wildlife (www.defenders.org).

“ Aims,

This seems so surreal. My heart broke when i saw this. You were my sister and best friend. We had walked through many good and bad times together. Laughed until we cried and cried till we laughed. It didnt matter if we talked every day or months, we still picked up right where we left off. Sometimes a 2 minute text turned into a 4 hr phone call.

You are now no longer in pain and for that im grateful. The morning you passed you were on my mind all day. As i had just told someone about our roadtrip and deer incident. Girl you are and always will be on my mind and in my heart.

I truly send my sympathy to mom, nick, and scott.

Rest in peace baby girl. Enjoy the warm sunshine. No more hurt no more pain .

*I love you always

“ I want to offer my deepest sympathy to Amy's family. Especially Suzanne and Jennifer. It's been many years and we've been out of touch but I remember how Amy and Jen and I used to hang out and even go swimming together at the YMCA. They taught me how to swim. Amy was the sweetest person you could ever meet. I was shocked and saddened when I heard and my thoughts and prayers are with her family

“ We will remember Amy as a very sweet person who was a devoted mother and loving wife. She enjoyed seeing my colorful, but untidy, flower garden with its array of statues. and birdhouses. Our love goes out to Scott and Nick.

“ My sweet sister. There is not an important memory in my life that you were not a part of. I know we lost touch these past few years but not a day went by that I did not think of you. Something would trigger a memory of trouble we got into as children or just time we spent together. I cannot imagine my life without you in it. If not physically then in a memory we shared. You were my cousin by blood but my sister at heart. I love you. I miss you. Be at peace and I know we will meet again. My thoughts are with Scott, Nick, and Aunt Suzie.

“ I remember the first time I went to Ocean City and Assateague. Your mom and Uncle Jerry took us and we got those yellow zip up hoodies with the shiny rainbow letters on them. My dear cousin I was 5 or 6 and you were 1 and a half or 2. We had so much fun. I will truly miss you. I love you. XO
