

Ann Manning Effinger

February 5, 1914 - November 6, 2013

Ann Manning Effinger passed away peacefully on Wednesday, November 6, 2013, at William Hill Manor in Easton, MD. She was 99 years of age. Mrs. Effinger was born on February 5, 1914, in Baltimore, daughter of the late James Manning and Bertha Burkardt Manning. She spent most of her life in Towson, later retiring with her husband to Fenwick Island, DE, in 1976.

She was the beloved wife of the late Charles H. Effinger, who died in 1983. She is survived by five children, Charles H. Effinger Jr., Nancy E. Whitehurst, Peter D. Effinger, Susan E. Reynolds, and Scott Effinger; 15 grandchildren; 30 great-grandchildren; and six great-great-grandchildren.

“We love you very much. Good night dear one.”

A private memorial service will be held at Trinity Episcopal Church in Towson, MD.

“ We have so many fond memories of our beloved "Mrs. Effie" that span decades from Florida Road to Keenwick; all the impromptu visits where we were welcomed like members of the family; the "Big Birthday" party in Bethany Beach and on and on.....

We send our prayers and sympathy to the entire Effinger family.

Love,

Bill and Barbara Miller
