

Mrs Ann C. Hooker

August 10, 1930 - February 17, 2013

Ann C. Hooker of Easton, MD died on February 17, 2013 at The Memorial Hospital at Easton. She was 82.

Born in Salem, Massachusetts on August 10, 1930, she was the daughter of the late Joseph and Janet Warren Chatman.

Mrs. Hooker was an avid golfer and curler. She also enjoyed traveling, preferably to colder climates, in which she followed her passion for penguins.

Mrs. Hooker is survived by a sister, Janet Goedecker of Rye, New York; her three children, Kathleen Evans of Easton, Mitzi Vanderbyl of Bethlehem and Eddie Hooker (Charlotte) of Salisbury; five grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, Edwin Elam Hooker, whom she married on February 28, 1953, and a sister, Joan Lamborn.

Friends may call on Sunday, March 3, 2013 from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m. at Fellows, Helfenbein and Newnam Funeral Home, P.A., Easton. A graveside service will be held at 11:00 a.m. on Monday, March 4, 2013 at Oxford Cemetery, Oxford, MD.

Memorial donations may be made to the American Cancer Society, P.O. Box

163, Salisbury, MD 21803 or Nature Conservancy, 4245 North Fairfax Drive,
Suite 100, Arlington, VA 22203.

“ My prayers and condolences go out to Ann's family, friends and acquaintances during this time of loss.

I worked with Ed for nine years when I was a teller at MD National Bank in Easton. During those years, I was fortunate enough to meet Ann at many of the Christmas parties and other bank events. She had a great sense of humor and was a very kind and friendly lady. I can still remember her smiles. She and Ed together could keep everyone laughing with their stories and jokes. They were both "good people".

“ We are very saddened to hear the news of Ann's passing. My parents, Helen and West Woodbridge, always enjoyed seeing her and hearing the delightful tales of her travels and her penguin stories, along with family memories. Only having met her a couple times years ago when I was younger, I wished I had known as she sounded like a person full of life and good times. In just talking with my parents they were reminiscing and enjoyed recalling many fun times and stories - they will miss her. Please give our love to all of your family and hope we may have the opportunity to meet in the future. My mother will be writing you separately.

She was my best friend and I will miss her everyday, but I know that she is up there playing with all of her penguin friends she love so dearly. Not only was she my best friend but she was the best mother I could have had. Rest easy, because you deserve it. She had a long and fuffilling life and made friends with whoever she met. I love you Mom and I will miss you so much.
