

Ann Wilmer Hoon

April 19, 1928 - August 3, 2016

She was born to Isabel Perry Wilmer and Philip G. Wilmer on April 19, 1928.

Ann is survived by her husband of 65 years, Alexander H. (Sandy) Hoon; two sons and their wives, Dr. Alexander H. Hoon, Jr., (Cindy) and Philip W. Hoon (Lisa), and seven grandchildren. She was pre-deceased by the death of her son, David M. Hoon.

After attending Chestertown Public Schools, Ann graduated from St. Catherine's School, Richmond, VA, and Wellesley College, Wellesley, MA.

Over the years, she and Sandy lived in Fredericksburg, VA; Wilmington, NC; Nashville, TN; Devon, PA; Poland, OH; and Pittsburgh, PA. They moved back to her hometown of Chestertown in 1980. While in Pittsburgh, Ann was a teacher at the Winchester-Thurston School.

Shortly after returning to Chestertown, Ann founded PACE – Program for Advancement of Continuing Education – at Washington College. The Washington College Academy for Lifelong Learning is the successor to PACE. She owned and operated The Butterfly Bush store in Chestertown during the 1980's and 1990's.

During her 36 years in Chestertown, Ann was actively involved with many organizations including Kent & Queen Anne Hospital; League of Women Voters; Chamber of Commerce; Rotary Club; and the Soroptimists.

There will be a Memorial Service for Ann at Emmanuel Episcopal Church, Chestertown at 3 p.m. on Saturday, August 13. Interment will be private.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests any tributes in Ann's memory be made to the Kent County Public Library, the Kent County Humane Society, or to any charity of your choice.

“ Mrs. Ann will be very much missed by me. When ever she came to the library she would recognize me and come to where I was working to chat for a few minutes. She had a great sense of humor and would always have something funny to say. I worked for her father when he was mayor and manager of Eliason Motors.
