Dear Sabrina, I don't know if you remember me from our childhood days on Liberty Street, playing on your grandmother's porch, climbing her Crepe Myrtle trees.....but I do! I was Sharon Toulson and lived on the opposite side of the Post Office from your grandma. (I have and use her potato bread recipe, as it is my favorite) I had NO idea your Mom was at Heron Point for all of those years! I would loved to have seen her and you. I'm so sorry for your loss! May God grant you a healthy and happy life!
