“ Miss Ann will be dearly missed. I was lucky enough to be grow up on the best street in the world! Miss Ann would pick me up for Sunday School every Sunday. Before I started school I truly believed I had my first job sweeping the railway floor, shredding receipts, filling the soda machine, and annoying Debbie. She would give me a pack of crackers and a soda. Yeats later when I moved away, every now and then I would be surprised with a sweet note in the mail. Prayers and warm memories for Mr. Elmer, Ricky, Linda, Debbie, Megan & Tyler.
