“ Although it's been many years since I've seen Ann, my fondest memories were of Butch bringing her to meet me and introducing her as she watched me bathe my two boys (the youngest had not been born). She was and remained, one of the sweetest women I had ever met; always a kind word and a smile. She told me on that first meeting how someday she wanted two boys and I thought then what a good mom she'd be and I was right! My condolences to her family.
