“ *Dear Helen,
Your mother Ann was a wonderful rider and a gracious friend. One afternoon all the ladies saddled up (Ann, Sandy, Kay, Lynn) and a few others plus my daughter, Jaime on her pony, Snuggles. We had a great ride and we all gathered in Sandy's pasture still on our horses. Well at this point Snuggles had had enough. We turned around and Jaime was on the ground (totally unhurt except for her self respect). It is a a great memory of all of us having a wonderful afternoon. Love your Mom and Will miss her very much.
