“ I remember being a next-door neighbor to Ann and her family when I was house-sitting for Annice and Norman Fike in Easton. I also remember teaching music to her daughter, Amy, when she was in fifth grade, and sliding down the homemade snow hill with the Yinglings and the Wildasins in their neighborhood (including Ann's son Kevin, who relished "taking people out" as they were sliding down the hill. We spent time together traveling to high school baseball games in Frederick and sharing how our families knew each other in Carroll County. I am saddened by Ann's death and will cherish all of my memories of her. Love to Don, Kevin, Amy and families.

“ I am Clint Brookhart, grandson of Helen Taylor Brookhart who was sister to Ann’s mom, Lucile Taylor Philips. I grew up in Pennsylvania but spent many weeks in the summers at my grandparents home in Jarrettsviile MD. That was at least 75 years ago!
During these summer visits I got to know Ann at the beautiful farm to north of Jarrettsville..we just had fun together..
So..I was very saddened to learn that she passed on.
For my many relatives who will attend the funeral I would like them all to know that Ann was a very good soul!
Rest In Peace Ann..I’ll see you in the future.

Kindly,
Clinton Brookhart Jr

“ I saw Mrs. Yingling at a lacrosse game a few years ago, she was watching her granddaughter and I was watching my daughter play. I walked over and she remembered me and we chatted a little. We reminisced about a few funny moments in class and I told her how I became a Special Education Teacher and thanked her for the extra push when I needed it. At that moment it was just nice to see a former teacher, today I look back and I'm so grateful I had the chance to say thank you and show her that her guidance served me well. She was brilliant, classy and an amazing lady. My heart, thoughts and prayers go out to Kevin and the family.

“ I attended the wedding of Ann and Don over 50 years ago. My husband Dave and I had our first date on New Years Eve at the home of Ann and Don in 1972 and were married in November of 1973. We feel blessed that we had a friendship of such long standing. A fond memory is the phone call from Ann telling me she had just given birth to Kevin! We are deeply saddened but feel blessed to have had such a long time friend. Roberta Fox

“ Ann knitted prayer shawls to the last. We knitters will miss her wisdom, her common sense and her wonderful humor. Her seat will be so empty in the weeks to come. We give thanks for her company.

“ To Don, Kevin, Amy, and your families, I just want to extend my sympathies for the loss of Ann. She was a constant source of warmth and friendship the entire 15 years that we were colleagues at Easton Middle (and before, from St. Mark's). I do, and always will, think of her with fondness. I can only imagine the loss you all feel. My thoughts are with you at this time.
