

Anna Duvall

July 12, 1923 - March 18, 2014

Anna Lee Duvall peacefully left this life on March 18, 2014, thinking she could still do all the things she had done for the past ninety years. Born in Easton on July 12, 1923, she was the daughter of the late Clinton W. Cooper and Emily Schuyler Cooper.

Mrs. Duvall deeply loved her family, nature, her home, and her flowers. She gave of herself unselfishly all her life and in the eyes of her adoring family was truly an angel walking the earth.

She is survived by her three daughters, Sandra L. Ripple and her husband, John; Deborah M. Duvall, and Katherine A. Langrell and her husband, Mark, four grandchildren, William "Woody" Bramble and his significant other, Judy, James "Jamie" Duvall and his wife, Martha, Sara K. Bowen and her husband, Brookie, and Jason E. Duvall and his wife, Wendy; and three great-grandchildren; Alissa M. Bramble, Sophie M. Duvall and Anna C. Duvall. She was preceded in death by her husband, Edward Duvall and her son, James Duvall.

A funeral service will be held on Saturday, March 22, 2014, at 1 p.m. at Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, P.A., 200 S. Harrison St., in Easton, where friends may call one hour prior to the service. Interment will follow in White Marsh Cemetery on Rt. 50 in Trappe.

Memorial contributions may be made to Talbot Hospice Foundation, 586 Cynwood Dr., Easton, MD 21601 or St. Paul's Episcopal Church, 3936 Main St., P.O. Box 141, Trappe, MD 21673.

“ Miss Anna Lee will always hold a dear place in my heart. I don't believe she ever knew a stranger. Her door was always open. I remember stopping in from time to time when I lived the Baltimore area. She always greeted me with warmth and love. I won't ever forget her heart warming smile.
