

Anna Estella Thomas

March 3, 1941 - January 14, 2018

Anna Estella Thomas of Stevensville, Maryland died Saturday, January 14, 2018 at University of Maryland Shore Medical Center at Chestertown. She was 76.

Born on March 3, 1941, Anna was the daughter of Maude V. Diefenderfer and William A. Thomas.

Anna enjoyed life. She would spend time with family and close friends. She was passionate about animals, especially her late dog "Bud", which led her to pet/house sit for clients. When asked, her greatest achievement in life was being a mother. To her, nothing made her more proud than being a mother to her now, late son.

In addition to her parents, Anna is predeceased by her son, Doug Thomas. She is survived by Daughter inlaw Renee Thomas, Grandson Matthew Stephen Gellert, Dave Phaneuf and Granddaughters Jessica Stafford, Samantha Clevenger of Stevensville, Maryland; great-grandchildren Aiden Oliveri, Olivia Gellert, Bryer and Flynn Stafford, Madison and Collin Deighan ; Close friend Pat Thompson of Stevensville, Maryland.

A graveside service will be held on Sunday, January 21 at 1:00 PM in Stevensville Cemetery.

“ My family knew Ann for many years, she and my dad and my husband had many spirited conversations about anything and everything. She took great care of my dog Patches until her health didn't allow it. Patches missed sitting on her lap all day hummingbird watching and being well spoiled! Ann and her Dougie are together again and I am sure she's happy and at peace. RIP to one of the strongest women I know.
