

Anna Thompson

September 15, 2005

Anna Pauline Thompson of Barclay died Thursday, Sept. 15, 2005, in the Chestertown Nursing and Rehabilitation Center, Chestertown. She was 88.

Mrs. Thompson was born in Barclay, daughter of the late W. Leonard and G. Pearle Sparks Walls.

She spent most of her life as a homemaker, but in her early years worked during World War II at the defense plant in Chestertown and through the 1970s and 1980s served Queen Anne's County as an election judge.

For many years, she was an avid pitch player but her favorite thing in life was her quiet lifestyle and her family.

Mrs. Thompson was a member of the Marvin Memorial United Methodist Church in Barclay.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, John A. "Buck" Thompson in 1995; and a granddaughter, Melissa L. Everett also in 1995.

She is survived by a daughter and a son-in-law, Barbara T. and Spencer W. Everett of Sudlersville; a son and a daughter-in-law, John A. "Jack" Jr. and Christine Thompson of Dover, Del.; a sister, Louise W. Skinner of Centreville; a granddaughter, Michele E. Seibel of Westminster; and two great-grandchildren, Rachel M. Seibel and Nathan E. Seibel.

Funeral services will be 2 p.m. Tuesday in the Fellows Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, 370 W. Cypress St., Millington, where friends may call one hour earlier.

Burial will be private.

Instead of flowers, the family suggests contributions to the Marvin Memorial United Methodist Church, c/o Mrs. Sudler Story, PO Box 25, Barclay MD 21607.
