

Anne Swain Levis

March 6, 2000

Anne Swain Levis, 74, a woman of passion and vision, died suddenly in Chestertown, MD, Monday morning, March 6, of complications from a rare liver disorder.

Anne, only recently a resident of Chestertown along with her beloved husband, Jack, was born Anne Virginia Swain and raised in Georgetown, DE. She was the only child of Ralph and Elisabeth Swain of Georgetown. In high school, she earned recognition for both her athletic and academic achievements. She attended the University of Delaware where she graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in Chemistry in 1946. It was at college during her senior year that she met dashing Army Air Corps. Lt. Jack Levis, who had just returned from WWII and was entering the University as a freshman. Their marriage and romance has lasted a lifetime.

Anne received much recognition and many accolades during her life, culminating perhaps in her receipt in 1984 of the Outstanding Female Alumni Award from the University of Delaware. However, she always felt that her greatest accomplishments have been as a loving wife and mother.

She is survived by her husband of 52 years, C. Jackson Levis, Sr., and their four married sons, Charles J. Levis, Jr. (Carol) of Flemington, NJ., Scotton S. Levis (Bev) of Hatboro, PA, Lee C. Levis (Mary) of Salisbury, MD, and Linden

C. Levis (Ann) of Virginia Beach, VA. Her only daughter, Kathryn Elisabeth Levis, died in 1979 from cystic fibrosis. In addition, Anne is survived by 13 grandchildren with a first great- grandchild due in May.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions can be sent to the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, P.O. Box 96305, Washington, DC 20090-6305 or the CDLS Foundation, 302 West Main Street, #100, Avon, CT 06001.

A private graveside service will be held at Sharp's Cemetery in Fair Hill, MD, at 10:30 a.m., Thursday March 9, to be followed by an open memorial service at Emmanuel Episcopal Church at 2 p.m. that same day.
