

Anne Love Smith

July 9, 1940 - April 29, 2009

Anne Love Smith died suddenly and unexpectedly Wednesday, April 29, 2009 in Dorchester General Hospital in Easton. She was 68 years old.

Anne was born on July 9, 1940 in Greenock, Scotland. She moved to Burlington, New Jersey with her parents, Henry and Flora Love, and her brother, Ian, when she was ten. Later, she became the high school sweetheart of fellow Burlington High School student Peter Moore Smith. They married on May 6, 1960.

Anne is survived by her husband, Army officer Col. Peter Moore Smith (ret.), and their three children, Julianne Moore, Valerie Wells, and Peter Moore Smith III, and by her brother Ian Love. She delighted in her grandchildren — Porter, John, Cal, Brett, Liv, and Wolfgang.

While raising her three children, Anne attended many schools, including Canal Zone Junior College, Juneau Douglas Junior College, and the University of Nebraska, ultimately graduating Summa Cum Laude with a BA from Briar Cliff College, a M.Ed. from Boston University, and a Masters in Social Work from Catholic University. She especially loved children and family, and her career as a counseling psychologist and social worker was devoted to helping people live happier lives.

Anne and her family traveled the world and lived in many places, including New Jersey, North Carolina, Alabama, Georgia, Texas, Panama, Nebraska, Alaska, New York, Virginia, Germany, Washington DC, and, finally, Maryland. The waters of the Chesapeake reminded her of the coastal town in Scotland where she was from, and so her husband Peter retired in St. Michaels. They lived there together for 19 happy years. Anne found a fulfilling career at Cambridge Hospital, a beautiful home that became her life's great creative project, and many, many friends.

There is much to tell about Anne's life. She was successful and accomplished. But what is most important to say is that she had a fiercely intelligent mind and a ferociously loving heart. She was deeply loved and will be deeply missed.

As per Anne's wishes, services will be private. In lieu of flowers, donations can be sent to the Talbot County Mental Health Association at 611B Dutchman's Lane, Easton, MD 21601-3345.

Arrangements made by Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, P.A. of Easton.

Tribute Wall

“ Anne Love Smith

October 26, 2023 at 06:42 PM

“ Anne Love Smith

January 28, 2023 at 12:44 PM

“ Anne Love Smith

January 28, 2023 at 08:03 AM

“ Some people in this life stay in your heart forever. Anne was just this kind of person. To know her, was to love her. I was deeply saddened to read of this very lovely lady's passing, my sincere condolences to her dear family and many friends. Not to be forgotten are the many many people that she helped in her profession along the way. I worked with her briefly in my 25-year career at the hospital and she also took my aerobics class through the hospital in St. Michaels! I remember her smile and her laugh. She brought such joy to this world!##imported-begin##Carol Leone##imported-end##

May 05, 2009 at 09:34 PM

“ I spent several years working with Anne and truly admired here calmness and patience when dealing with the mentally ill. She was truly a lovely lady at all times and not only a valued colleague but a cherished friend. My prayers are for Anne's family for comfort and peace at this time. She will be missed.

Sincerely,

Lois Bahr##imported-begin##Lois Bahr##imported-end##

May 04, 2009 at 01:36 PM